Please propose a graduate course of your ideal and/or to you expectation. This course proposal should demonstrate your interest of study. And it should include 1) a topic for this course, 2) a course description of 500~700 words, 3) a tentative list of authors and works that you wish to study and explain why they are crucial to your proposal, and 4) an efficient way to evaluate graduate student's performance. You may choose to add other information to illustrate your idea, but make it brief and clear. (100%)
